The Centre for Studies in Leadership is pleased to announce the 2007

Lincoln Alexander
Outstanding Leader Award

Recipient

The Honourable
Frank McKenna, P.C., O.N.B., Q.C.

In selecting The Honourable Frank McKenna as this year’s recipient, the Selection Committee has singled out his lifetime commitment to the CSL Core Values of Service, Advocacy, Scholarship, Collaboration, and Learning, as demonstrated by:

- his advocacy roles during his early career as a defence solicitor;
- his leadership role in the very early transformation of higher education delivery processes through Networked Learning;
- his collaboration with both large and small-medium businesses to create jobs for New Brunswickers;
- his depoliticizing of public service in New Brunswick through the restructuring of the reporting relationship of Communications New Brunswick, making it report to the head of the Civil Service;
- his personal commitment to public service through innovative direct telephone access as premier;
- his commitment to ethical governance by honouring his pledge to serve as premier of New Brunswick for ten years; and
- his distinguished leadership role as Canadian Ambassador to the United States during particularly difficult times.
