Eligibility

Citizens of the world whose actions and body of work demonstrate a commitment to the Leadership Values central to the mission of the Centre for Studies in Leadership (CSL). This award has been named after Lincoln Alexander who received the inaugural award in 2006. Throughout his career in public life, Lincoln Alexander’s leadership exemplified devotion to these values.

Selection Criteria

The recipient’s actions/body of work must demonstrate a commitment to the core values of the CSL: collaboration, scholarship, advocacy, service and learning. The commitment must have been demonstrated in either one very significant event or over an extended period of time.

Award Requirements

1. Ideally the recipient should be internationally recognized for their accomplishments in the categories identified above.
2. A link to Canada is highly valued though not a pre-requisite.
3. The Recipient of the Lincoln Alexander Outstanding Leader Award must be willing to attend the annual Lincoln Alexander Outstanding Leader Award Banquet to receive the award in person.

Selection Committee

The selection committee is made up of the CSL Director, Research Director, Associate Dean and the University Provost, with the input of the CSL External Advisory Board.

The Award

The award will be presented at the annual Lincoln Alexander Outstanding Leader Award Banquet.
