

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our thanks to our wonderful advisor, Norman Smith. His passion and support for this project is the reason the journal makes it to print each year. We are so thankful for his dedication.

We would also like to thank this year's contributors, who patiently and painstakingly edited their papers throughout the process. We are so proud of the final products, and we hope you are as well! We also owe our thanks to the many folks who submitted essays to the journal that we were not able to publish. We are inspired by your feminist scholarship.

Thank you to our copy editors Veronica Majewski and Daniel Harris. This year we welcomed back Veronica, a previous collective member and Master's Student of Philosophy. We also welcomed Daniel, a new addition to the team, a current PhD candidate in the Philosophy department. Your keen eyes have been invaluable to the process!

Additionally, we would like to thank the many organizations who contributed financially to the journal this year: The Guelph Resource Centre for Gender Empowerment and Diversity, Central Student Association, College of Social and Applied Human Sciences - Student Association, the Guelph Campus Co-op, the College of Arts Student Union, Student Life Enhancement Fund, Ontario Public Research Interest Group and the Women's Campus Safety Initiative. Special shout-out to our funders at the Guelph Campus Co-op, celebrating their 100th anniversary in 2013!

We are so appreciative of Lori Barnsley for her help with the financial side of the project.

Finally, we thank SAS Printing and Graphics for coordinating the printing of the journals.

This project has come together with the support and guidance of so many people who remain unnamed; previous collective members, professors and peers. We thank you all.
