Indigenous Canada MOOC continues to partner with CFLA-FCAB Indigenous Matters Committee/Comité des questions autochtones (IMC-CQA)

The Canadian Federation of Library Associations (CFLA-FCAB) is happy to announce the launch of Indigenous Canada, a 12-lesson Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) developed by the University of Alberta's Faculty of Native Studies. This MOOC explores Indigenous histories and contemporary issues in Canada, from an Indigenous perspective.

Check out the tool kit below and encourage your patrons to join the next student cohort. New cohorts start every month!

The Indigenous Matters Committee of CFLA-FCAB, in collaboration with the University of Alberta, Edmonton Public Library, Northern Lights Library System, and Toronto Public Library, is providing Canadian libraries with online tools and resources to help support the delivery of this MOOC to the Canadian public through library programming and promotion.

Additional thanks to University of Manitoba for their ongoing support of the Indigenous Matters Committee.

You can find all the tools and resources here in this online kit:
