Call for Papers

Eligibility
Undergraduate students from all disciplines at the University of Guelph are eligible to submit a paper to SURG. It is expected most submissions will be based on summer research or fourth-year thesis and research courses.

Requirements
SURG accepts abstracts, reviews, and original articles. All submissions must be approved by the student’s faculty supervisor.

Each department at the University of Guelph is responsible for reviewing and selecting papers to be published in SURG. Each department may select up to two papers per major hosted in the department, for each issue.

Formatting requirements are as follows:

- Submissions must be a Microsoft Word document
- Submissions must have an abstract of no more than 250 words
- Submissions must be double spaced and have clear headings
- Submissions should have references in-line with superscript numbers, with the complete citation at the end of the document in a References section
- Figures and Tables are encouraged. They must be numbered, have full captions, and be placed at the end of the document, not in-line
- Students should indicate their major, the course the paper was written for (if applicable), and their faculty supervisor or course coordinator

Questions can be directed to surg@uoguelph.ca

Call for Editorial Staff

SURG is looking for students interested in research and publishing to volunteer their time as editorial staff. Duties will include reviewing, copy editing, layout editing, and assisting with daily operation of the journal.

Requirements include superior literacy skills and knowledge of Microsoft Word and/or HTML. Previous research experience is a plus.

Interested students should email Robert Berger, SURG Editor, at surg@uoguelph.ca